You're in a better place, I've heard a thousand times
And at least a thousand times I've rejoiced for you.
But the reason why I'm broken, the reason why I cry,
Is how long must I wait to be with you.

I close my eyes and I see your face
If home's where the heart is, then I'm out of place.
Lord, won't you give me strength to make it through somehow
I've never been more homesick than now.

Help me, Lord, because I don't understand your ways.
The reason why I wonder if I'll ever know.
But even if you showed me, the hurt would be the same
Because I'm still here so far away from home.

In Christ, there are no goodbyes
In Christ there is no end.
So I'll hold onto Jesus with all that I have
To see you again
To see you again.

I close my eyes and I see your face.
If home's where my heart is, then I'm out of place.
Lord, won't you give me strength to make it through somehow.
I've never been more homesick than now.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*
